An organizer's dream, the original linen room has indeed become the ultimate clutter-free closet. The elegant, dark wood shelves set off the crisp brightness of white and off-white linens, highlighted by touches of colour. Ample shelving for towels, sheets, pillows, duvets, shams and table linens provides a perfect home for both daily-use and special-occasion linens. The upper shelves house seldom-used items in beautiful decorative boxes and baskets. A rug on the floor for added coziness and even an ironing board make this room a pleasure to work in. Martha Stewart would definitely approve.
